

ENERGY SECTOR SERVICES

Providence has established a team of experienced professionals to serve clients in the energy sector including oil and gas E & P development, pipeline installation/maintenance, and natural gas storage projects. Our collective group of professionals has extensive experience in the commercial, consulting, industrial, and regulatory fields. This experience allows us to service the energy sector's environmental and engineering needs utilizing cost-effective services and solutions.

Professional Services

Our energy sector services include:

- Pipeline route selection/alternatives analyses
- Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) 7c Compliance
- MARAD, DOT, & U.S. Coast Guard Coordination
- Engineering services
- Litigation support
- Coastal restoration planning & implementation
- Ecological services
 - Wetlands & coastal use permitting
 - Scenic rivers permitting
 - Threatened & endangered species assessments
 - State/Federal agency liaison assistance
 - Wetlands mitigation banking
- On-call compliance assistance for maintenance/replacement projects
- Water quality
 - SPCC Plans & SWPPPs
 - Water use & hydrostatic test water discharge permitting

Professional Services

Cont'd

- Air quality
 - State and Federal permitting – compliance management
 - Continuous Emissions Monitoring Systems
- Soil/groundwater investigations
 - Release/spill investigations
 - Risk assessments
 - Remediation services
 - Groundwater monitoring
- Mapping/Drafting/Imaging/GIS
- Emergency response support
- Natural Resource Damage Assessment (NRDA)

Professional Teams

Our team of professionals includes:

- Environmental engineers
- Civil engineers
- Chemical engineers
- Agronomists
- Biologists/ecologists
- Geologists/hydrogeologists
- Environmental regulatory compliance specialists
- Emergency response support

